

The Wichita Daily Eagle.

VOL. XX, NO. 139.

WICHITA, KANSAS, FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 1894.

WHOLE NO. 2749.

Today and Until

All are sold we will give you your pick of 104 pairs of odd pants—no two alike—for $1.50. These are mostly left from suits and are worth regular from $2.50 to $4.00. You'd best make your selection today; your size may be gone tomorrow. Other odd pairs, finer grade and nobbler patterns, have been placed in lots to sell at $2.00 and $2.50, and are worth more than double the price we've named to close. Be quick and

EMBRACE THIS OPPORTUNITY.

There's nothing that fits a man so well as his skin, and next to that the garments sold by

Herman & Hess

406 E. Douglas ave.

Electricity Free!

Our Sexual Vitalizers Free for One Week's Trial.

Successful specialists in chronic diseases and ailments of men, blood and skin diseases, sore throat and mouth, indigestion and nervous system, bladder diseases, irritations, scalding, inflammation, etc. We have a positive cure for nervous debility, weakness, impaired memory, general anxiety, absence of vitality, power, dizziness, imperfectly developed organs, etc. For specific and safe cure of all chronic diseases of men and women, consult.

THE BOYD MEDICAL CO.
(Western Office)
165 N. Main St., Wichita, Kansas

A RARE CHANCE.

A choice fruit farm, land and orchard miles from Kansas, 30 acres rich black loam, all in cultivation, good home, barn, green house, and out buildings, wind pump, all fenced, large orchard of young and old apple and peach trees, blue vineyard, all land well watered on long time. For terms inquire of C. C. VANOSTER, Kansas City, Mo.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY'S BARGAINS.

We show special a lot of Spring Novelty Dress Goods, strictly all wool, nice line of styles, worth 1.00 and 1.25 per yard. Friday and Saturday at 50c.

Just received, 50 doz. C. C. summer corsets go in this sale for 45 cents each. 75 doz open work ladies' Lisle thread vests that cannot be owned under 40c, at 19c each.

Millinery.

500 ladies' sailor hats in tan, brown, navy and black, worth 50c, at 12 cents. 200 Daisy Bell, same color as above, worth 75c, at 33 cents.

Choice of 100 dozen fine flowers, worth 75c to 1.50, at 25c each. Choice of 50 dozen fine flowers, worth 50c and 75c, at 9 cents.

200 white Leghorn flats, Friday and Saturday, only 12 cents.

300 bunches of violets at 5 cents. 50 doz sample boys' and children's fancy capes, worth 1.00, at 49 cents.

5 cases ladies' tan Oxford 1.25, at 75c.

ODDS AND ENDS IN LACE CURTAINS. Slightly damaged. 500 odd Lace Curtains, slightly damaged, ranging in 2, 2 1/2, 3 and 3 1/2 yard lengths go in this sale at 17 cents each.

Boston Store.

Munson & McNamara.

NEW PARASOLS. A QUIETUS.

We open this morning Parasols strictly up to date as to style. Light and beautiful are the shades; absolutely under all competition as to prices.

We Announce This Early Special Sales For Saturday.

As they are very important.

South window shows 50 dozen ladies' vests, same we sold about a month ago. We then sold 50 dozen. Others ask 25c. On sale Saturday at 13 cents.

Center Window Navy Blue Umbrellas.

See them; Dresden handles. Sale price Saturday $1.75.

It is now DISTINCTLY understood that we beat all prices on Carpets, Curtains, Rugs and Matting

Munson & McNamara.

MORTGAGE SALE.

The finest line of Suitings to select from, at least money. These goods must be sold at all hazards.

Ucle.

111 E. First St.
Harmening, Cutter,

Howard Douglas, Mortgagee.

Golden Eagle.

215-217 E. Douglas Cor. Lawrence.

Read THE GOLDEN EAGLE

"AD."

IN Tomorrow's Eagle

Golden Eagle.

215-217 E. Douglas Cor. Lawrence.

A CUT IN PICTURES

Best Cabinets, Best style, $2.00 per dozen. Best Cabinets, full lengths, $2.50 per dozen.

This cut is for 60 days, and we will give $2.00 to one not receiving our very best work.

BALDWIN, Photo, 118 E. Douglas

We are closing in on our NOBLE competitor. He has unwittingly fallen into a trap. The following appeared in his ad. yesterday:

"Our competitor in his ad. calls us a liar by saying in his poetical (?) and funny (?) way that there is no such thing in the carpet vocabulary as 'Axminster Moquettes'."

Now, then, SWALLOW your own epithets.

We will give $100 to charity if we have said the above in a poetical (?) or funny (?) way.

We will give another $100 if we have said it in any of our ads, in any way.

What We Did Say Is This:

"We have real Axminsters and real Moquettes, but no Axminster-Moquettes."

We will give another $100 if the above is not true in every particular

What Are Axminster-Moquettes

Here at last is the chance we have been waiting for—the opportunity of making a full "EX-POSE" of the practice so long carried on by our competitor of selling Axminster-Moquette carpets for any higher grade than a plain Moquette.

Let Marshall Field & Co. of Chicago, the New York Dry Goods Exchange of New York City, tell what they are. We have on display in our window telegrams from them both, as below:

The Western Union Telegraph Company. (Dated) CHICAGO, 4-24-1894. To Munson & McNamara, Wichita, Kan. "Strictly speaking there is no such thing as an Axminster-Moquette. They are woven differently, but some manufacturers have branded their goods 'Axminster Moquettes'."

MARSHALL FIELD & CO. The Postal Telegraph Cable Company. (Dated) NEW YORK, 4-26-1894. Munson & McNamara, Wichita, Kan. "Axminster-Moquette carpets are known to the trade as Moquettes. Axminsters are a higher grade. The NEW YORK DRY GOODS EXCHANGE."

And if you want more evidence that Axminster-Moquettes are simply a fraud and the same grade as Moquettes, ask Finlay Ross of the great Emporium.

We Realize That A Complete Victory Is Ours.

That as victors we can afford to be charitable and even generous, but we cannot refrain from calling attention to the methods employed during this fight. On our side we have pursued the respectable paths of legitimate advertising and business, while our opponent has been cavorting around all alone in the open field of villification and personal abuse.

We leave him to his own reflections. Selah!

Munson & McNamara.

BLUE AND GRAY.

Ex-Soldiers of the North and South Fraternize at Reunion.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 26.—Just as yesterday, the ex-Confederate legation was crowded long before the convention began. Mayor Underwood announced that $1,827 had been received for the Confederate cemetery at Chicago by yesterday's contributions. Rosters for the dead at Johnson Island and Chicago were distributed by General Underwood.

A one-legged Confederate stated that his life had been saved on the battlefield by a Federal soldier and asked that the soldier be escorted to the stand, and it was done. The Federal soldier was Major C. Milstead, of the Fifth Infantry of West Virginia. He made a few remarks with ringing cheers to meet.

On motion of General Underwood a rising vote of thanks and the "Rebel yell" was accorded Major Milstead.

William C. Miller submitted his report as chairman of the J. F. Davis monument fund, stating that $12,333 had been received. This monument is to be erected at Richmond, Va. General W. H. Jackson of Tennessee, took the stand and introduced General Miller, federal commander of the Alabama G. A. R. General Miller made a special complimentary to General John B. Gordon, for his life in saving the life of General Francis C. Barlow, of the federal army, July, 1863, at Gettysburg.

He presented to General Gordon a cane on Barlow's Hill at Gettysburg, as a memento of his kindness to General Barlow. General Miller's speech was felicitous. He characterized General Gordon as the typical American soldier, and ringing cheers shook the air. The veterans gave the federal soldier a long round of applause.

General Gordon responded with the eloquence which he is famous for. Among the resolutions was one to send a commission to attend the Grand Army meeting at Atlanta.

The following officers were unanimously elected: Commander-in-chief, General John B. Gordon of Georgia, re-elected; deputy commander of the army of Northern Virginia, General Fitzhugh Lee of Virginia; deputy commander of the army of Tennessee, Stephen G. Lee of Clarksville, Tenn.; commander of Trans-Mississippi department, General W. Campbell of Dallas, Texas; general second in command, General W. H. Jackson of Tennessee.

Houston, Texas, was selected as the next place of meeting.

PRIEST HELD FOR CONTEMPT. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., April 26.—Father Corbett, the Palmyra, Neb., priest who has been having trouble with the bishop and who held services Sunday contrary to the order of the court, was held for contempt of court. A continuance was secured until next Monday, and the sentence was suspended. It is thought an appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

LOOK HERE!

WHAT CASH WILL DO ON SEWING MACHINES THIS WEEK.

Domestic—Old Price $65.00; Now $37.50	" " " " " " " " " " " "
" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " " " " " " " " " "
White—Old Price $60.00; Now $35.00	" " " " " " " " " " " "
" " " " " " " " " " " "	" " " " " " " " " " " "
Household—Old Price $55.00; Now $33.00	" " " " " " " " " " " "
Standard—Old Price $50.00; Now $30.00	" " " " " " " " " " " "
W & W's—Old Price $60.00; Now $35.00	" " " " " " " " " " " "

These are all new goods and these prices will only last until this lot is sold. A lot of second-hand ones $3 to $10.

A lot of second hand organs and pianos at $10 to $100.

I want some money and will give you twice the value for it. New pianos and organs at equally low prices.

THOS. SHAW.

WICHITA ICE CO.

CRYSTAL LAKE ICE. Telephone 161.

CHAS. HOFF, Prop.

Wholesale and retail ice delivered to any part of the city, in any quantity, at lowest prices.

NOVELTIES IN Suitings, Trouserings, Overcoatings.

MILLER & HULL
LEADING Tailors and Drapers.
Cor. Market and First Sts.

Special :- Prices.

Cash or Time.
Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines, Bicycles.

Barnes & Newcomb
Popular Music Dealers.
407 E. DOUGLAS.

DEFEAT IN STORE

DEMAGOGUE ALLEN'S PETS WILL GET NO SPECIAL FAVORS.

Senate Discusses the Nebraska Senator's Coxy Resolution and Hints Criticisms Upon It—Vest Objects to Granting Lawbreakers Special Privileges and Wolcott Vigorously Protests Against Cringing to Them

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Immediately after the reading of the journal in the senate today, Mr. Jarvis, recently apportioned from North Carolina to succeed the late Senator Vance, was sworn in. Senator Allen's Coxy resolution came up and Mr. Allen stated there would be no opposition on the Democratic side to its passage.

Mr. Vest, however, opposed it. These people should be treated the same as all other citizens of the United States. If they did not violate any laws they would not be molested, but he protested the introduction of such a resolution, because it intimated a want of confidence in the institutions and the laws of the land; their right to come here and visit the capital was so plain, so evident, that any suspicion about it was a reflection on the intelligence of the country. He was opposed to the preamble of the bill, if it meant to include those men who had trampled on the laws, injured private property and undertaken to secure transportation to this city by force of arms, for then he emphatically dissented from it.

He declared the men who were marching to Washington to be protected in their rights, but they would have to fear to abide by the laws of the land, and if Congress, for one instant, compromised with them, it would open a crevice which would end in a flood and final destruction. If any one wanted to come here, whether they were employed or unemployed, to inspect the public buildings, to visit Congress, their rights would be respected, but when they seized trains to come on, when they violated the laws of the country and trampled on the rights of the people, Congress ought not to treat with them.

Mr. Wolcott of Colorado entered a vigorous protest against the resolution. He was at a loss to understand the purpose of the resolution, which did not change the law in any respect, but simply extended a cringing invitation to those men calling themselves unemployed, some of whom were coming by begging, some by their overpowering force and some by violent trains. The only cause for a lawless action as had been recently enacted, had been the utterances of the men in high places holding office. Members of the senate who had spoken of a warlike police force and a paid soldiery seemed to think it proper to denounce in the senate men whom to do their duty it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

"That," said the speaker, "is not a question for the house to determine." He added he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary they were due.

Another resolution was promptly offered by Mr. Mahon (Rep., Pa.) precipitated the matter by rising to a question of privilege and offering a resolution directing the sergeant-at-arms to pay members their salaries without any deduction on account of absence, unless such absence was certified by some duly authorized officer of the house.

A point of order was raised by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

"That," said the speaker, "is not a question for the house to determine." He added he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary they were due.

Another resolution was promptly offered by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

"That," said the speaker, "is not a question for the house to determine." He added he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary they were due.

Another resolution was promptly offered by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

"That," said the speaker, "is not a question for the house to determine." He added he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary they were due.

Another resolution was promptly offered by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

"That," said the speaker, "is not a question for the house to determine." He added he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary they were due.

Another resolution was promptly offered by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

BULLETIN OF The Daily Eagle

Wichita, Friday, April 27, 1894.

Weather for Wichita Today: Generally Fair, Warm.

INDEX OF TODAY'S IMPORTANT NEWS

1. Congress Won't Receive Commonweal Great Northern Strike on in Earnest.
2. Striking Miners Join the Coxyites. Oklahoma Odd Fellows Celebrate. Proposed Reorganization of U.P. Road.
3. Featureless Day With Option Dealers. Wall Street Calls for Sugar.
5. Diamond Festival of the Three Links.
6. Senator Lodge's Rhetorical Polish. Perils of Seekers for Gold.
7. Arduous Life of a Congressman.

ate on Mr. Allen's resolution was as follows: Aldrich, Allison, Bate, Bristow, Blackburn, Blanchard, Brier, Caffery, Call, Camden, Coker, Cullum, Dubois, Faulkner, George, Gibson, Gurnham, Gray, Hale, Hansbrough, Harris, Hawley, Higgins, Hutton, Jarvis, Jones, of Arkansas, Lindsay, Lodge, McMillan, McPherson, Napoleon, Sawyer, Miller, Mitchell, of Wis., Morrill, Palmer, Pascoe, Perkins, Platt, Power, Proctor, Pugh, Rauch, Sherman, Shoup, Teller, Turpie, Vest, Vilas, Voorhees, Walsh, Washburn, White, Wolcott—54.

Nays—Allen, Dolph, Frye, Gallinger, Kyle, Peffer—6.

The yeas without division, then agreed to the resolution and Mr. Harris moved to take up the tariff bill and Mr. Higgins (Rep. Del.) took the floor in opposition to it.

At 5 o'clock Mr. Higgins concluded his speech after speaking three and a quarter hours.

Mr. Dolph, who was speaking when the senate adjourned yesterday, was recognized and gave a further installment of his tariff speech begun on the 26th inst. At 5:40 p. m. the senate went into executive session and immediately afterwards, at 6:30, adjourned.

In the House. WASHINGTON, April 26.—Mr. Henburn of Iowa, interposed his daily objection to the approval of the journal in the house today and compelled a roll call which resulted in its approval, 237 to nothing. At this point became visible the first effects of the attempt to enforce the law of 1886, to "dock" members for absence except on account of sickness.

Mr. Mahon (Rep., Pa.) precipitated the matter by rising to a question of privilege and offering a resolution directing the sergeant-at-arms to pay members their salaries without any deduction on account of absence, unless such absence was certified by some duly authorized officer of the house.

A point of order was raised by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

"That," said the speaker, "is not a question for the house to determine." He added he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary they were due.

Another resolution was promptly offered by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

"That," said the speaker, "is not a question for the house to determine." He added he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary they were due.

Another resolution was promptly offered by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

"That," said the speaker, "is not a question for the house to determine." He added he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary they were due.

Another resolution was promptly offered by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

"But that is not the law," interjected Mr. Reed.

"That," said the speaker, "is not a question for the house to determine." He added he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary they were due.

Another resolution was promptly offered by Mr. Mahon and sustained by several Democrats that the resolution did not present a question of privilege. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under the control of the house.

PART IN ANGER

NO HOPE FOR PEACEFUL SOLUTION OF GREAT NORTHERN STRIKE.

Test of Strength Has Commenced Between Railroad Managers and Employees and the Outcome is Viewed With Dismay—Serious Trouble Anticipated. Men Refuse to Arbitrate and President Hill Closes Conference.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 26.—All efforts for a peaceful settlement of the Great Northern strike have been declared off and the company and the American Railway union have begun to test their strength, and it may yet end in bloodshed.

The fact that the Great Northern system runs through considerable new country where no other means of travel is to be had, and where a somewhat rough element controls affairs, is believed to have been the principal cause for the company's action in not heretofore putting on new men. The result in that section, when the road begins to run its trains with new men, will be that there will be war to the knife and bloodshed perhaps with the strikers. The company started the first freight train today, and the battle may be said to have just begun. On the strength of the issuance by the United States court in this state and Dakota, and also in Montana, of orders restraining the men from interfering in any way with the handling of the road, the company has on all trains. Beginning today they went out on the freight trains.

During the time the strikers have been preventing the running of the company's trains of thirty-three members of the A. R. U., employees of the road, assembled in this city in accordance with a reply favorable to their request for a conference with the officers of the road.

Late this afternoon the men sent a brief communication to President Hill unconsciously rejecting his proposal for arbitration and renewing their demand for the old schedule, giving him to understand that their ultimatum was still in effect.

It is stated that the men will not attend any conference and negotiations as far as they are concerned. It is no longer recognized the American Railway union and will at once proceed to operate the Great Northern road without regard to the organization.

The freight train that went out this afternoon was manned by brotherhood men, all employees of the company. The American Railway union claims that they will have all the men on the line until it remains to be seen whether the men will go with the union or stand by the brotherhood.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., April 26.—The freight train which left St. Paul for the west has not arrived here and it is stated will not until daylight. The announcement that the freight was coming created much excitement among the strikers. This accounts for the men's refusal to go, twenty miles east of here, this morning.

IN HIGH FEATHER.

Western Lines Pleased That Eastern Trunk Lines Accept Their Cut in Emigrant Rates.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The western lines were in high feather today over the action taken by trunk lines in New York in accepting the reduced rates by them on emigrant traffic to the Pacific coast. The Southern Pacific again notified the western lines that it could not, under no circumstances, accept the rates and that it had so notified the interstate commission, but notwithstanding all this the western lines will continue to hold the rate in effect. They came to the conclusion that they can no longer rely on the Union Pacific in keeping up the rates and propose to proceed about their own business and ignore that the rate as far as they possibly can.

The Western Passenger association lines were in session today considering the proposition received from the Union Pacific to run home-seekers' excursions to points in the west and southwest at one fare for the round trip. No conclusion was reached.

LOWER RATES, MORE TRAVEL.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—The report of arrivals and departures, by rail over the Southern Pacific line, for 1893 were 15,606 January, 15,606 February, 15,606 March, 15,606 April, 15,606 May, 15,606 June, 15,606 July, 15,606 August, 15,606 September, 15,606 October, 15,606 November, 15,606 December, 15,606 Total, 15,606.

A SWIFT RUN. SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—The special train bearing the sons of the late Jesse Seligman, the New York banker, who died at Coronado, Monday, arrived from Chicago at 12 o'clock last night, having made the run in 62 hours, a day and a half faster than regular time. This afternoon at 4 o'clock the same train took the banker's remains, his sons, and widow and daughter back to New York.

INDIANA REPUBLICANS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 26.—The Republican state convention continued its labor until daylight today. The last nominations were: Supreme court, First and Fourth districts, T. J. Monks, of Randolph county; L. G. Jordan, of Morgan county for the First district. Supreme court reporter, Alexander Hess of Warsaw; superintendent of instruction, D. M. Gering of Jasper; state geologist, M. S. Brooker of Terre Haute; secretary of state, W. D. Owen of Logan; auditor, A. C. Bailey of Lawrence; treasurer, F. J. Scholz of Evansville; secretary, General Ketchum of Indianapolis.

USUAL SEQUEL.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 26.—A. E. Bell, city agent for the Reid Packing company of Kansas City, disappeared last night when he found that the firm was making an examination of his books. A state warrant charging him with embezzlement has been issued. Bell cut quite a figure in society here and gave wine suppers on a beer salary. His shortage is nearly $4,000.

LUXURIANT HAIR

As produced by the CUTicura Remedies when all others fail. They cleanse the scalp, remove dandruff, itching humors, stimulate the hair follicles, and destroy all parasitic insects which feed on the hair, and thus ensure when the hair grows again that it will be healthy and of a rich golden color.

Prepared by the CUTICURA REMEDIES when all others fail. They cleanse the scalp, remove dandruff, itching humors, stimulate the hair follicles, and destroy all parasitic insects which feed on the hair, and thus ensure when the hair grows again that it will be healthy and of a rich golden color.

Prepared by the CUTICURA REMEDIES when all others fail. They cleanse the scalp, remove dandruff, itching humors, stimulate the hair follicles, and destroy all parasitic insects which feed on the hair, and thus ensure when the hair grows again that it will be healthy and of a rich golden color.

Prepared by the CUTICURA REMEDIES when all others fail. They cleanse the scalp, remove dandruff, itching humors, stimulate the hair follicles, and destroy all parasitic insects which feed on the hair, and thus ensure when the hair grows again that it will be healthy and of a rich golden color.

Prepared by the CUTICURA REMEDIES when all others fail. They cleanse the scalp, remove dandruff, itching humors, stimulate the hair follicles, and destroy all parasitic insects which feed on the hair, and thus ensure when the hair grows again that it will be healthy and of a rich golden color.